

American Inline Hockey League – Rocky Mountain Talons
2009–2010 Team Player Contract/Waiver

I _____, understand and agree to the following obligations I will have with the CEIHF Organization for the duration of the 2009-2010 Season. This contract will be valid from the date of acceptance to June 1st, 2010.

For the 2009-2010 Season I will be held to the following requirements:

- I am aware and responsible of the monetary commitment required for participation. I understand that I have the option to pay in full or in installments based on the schedule outlined by the team. Lack of payment means dismissal from team.
- There will be no financial compensation to me for being a member of the CEIHF or AIHL Organizations. Instead - repayment of my player paid dues will be based on my participation in promotional programs outlined by the organization – not to exceed the amount paid by me for participation.
- I will be required to participate on game days – both on and off rink as instructed by my coaching staff for the duration of the season.
- I will be required to serve as an instructor at CEIHF and AIHL facilitated camps and clinics and appear/participate as requested by the organization throughout the season at team rallies, events or fundraisers.
- This contract may be terminated by the CEIHF Organization at any time if the team or league feels that I am not following the rules set forth or am displaying unprofessional conduct.
- A copy of this will be filed with the AIHL and you will not be released from this contract unless the parties are in a full agreement.
- I am aware that there is an inherent danger to playing the sport of Inline Hockey and will not hold the CEIHF Organization or AIHL accountable for any injury that may occur over the course of the 2009-2010 season. All athletes must have a current AAU membership.
- I fully understand that if I am in breach of this contract during the 2009-2010 AIHL Season. I will be held accountable to pay damages not to exceed the amount of $_____ to the CEIHF Organization.
- Player will abide by all mandatory team dress codes. Violation of dress code will result in game suspension.
