

Colorado Elite Inline Hockey Federation – Rocky Mountain Talons 2009–2010 Code of Conduct and Dress Code

Player Code of Conduct

The following Code of Conduct covers specific areas and will apply for the duration of the player's membership with CEIHF. It is impossible to outline every point or situation that may occur while a player is a member of CEIHF; however, it is vital that every player behave as ladies and gentlemen at all times. It is expected that players behave in a manner that reflects positively on them, their teammates, and CEIHF.

Rules and General Policies

CEIHF Players are expected to:

- Attend, be prepared and arrive on time for all practices, games and team functions
- Avoid inappropriate behavior during practices, games, and team or club sponsored events
- Conform to the rules established by the Head Coach of your individual team
- Maintain a positive individual attitude and support a positive team attitude
- Maintain a high level of physical and mental conditioning
- Strengthen and/or improve individual skills outside of regular training
- Demonstrate exemplary sportsmanship
- Report any injury to the Head Coach
- Respect the coach, manager, referee, opponent and the game
- Approach your head coach personally with any hockey-related problem
- Adhere to the laws of the game
- Take victory modestly and defeat graciously

CEIHF Players Will Not:

- Engage in dissent towards an official
- Use profane or vulgar language
- Leave any team function without notifying the Head Coach
- Use any controlled substance (drugs) unless prescribed by a physician
- Drink alcoholic beverages.

Practice and Field Rules

- When you report to a training session be mentally and physically ready to perform
- Report to training sessions early enough to allow you to prepare your uniform, water, etc. so that training may begin on time
- Training officially begins when the coach starts the warm-up
- You must wear the prescribed CEIHF training uniform
- You may be required to help staff with carrying balls, water, cones, etc.
- You may be required to help with any field set-up or break-down
- You will be required to keep the rink neat and free of training related garbage you may be responsible for

Colorado Elite Inline Hockey Federation – Rocky Mountain Talons 2009–2010 Code of Conduct and Dress Code

During matches you are required to maintain a professional attitude on the bench. This includes remaining seated on the bench unless otherwise instructed by the Head Coach. Comments should be kept to a minimum and reserved for positive reinforcement or congratulations and support. "Trash Talking" from the sidelines will not be tolerated.

You are required to remain with the team until dismissed by the Head Coach or otherwise excused. This includes injury related instances.

The Head Coach is the "Person in Charge" hence; all questions should be directed to him or her.

Dress Code and Appearance

CEIHF players are required to wear Tour Talons uniforms. Tour is the "official" supplier to CEIHF

All players will wear the prescribed game day uniform

All players will come to training dressed in the prescribed training uniform

All players will have their alternate uniform available at all matches

All players are responsible for keeping their game uniforms and training uniforms in proper playing condition. This includes playing skates being maintained properly and uniforms being cleaned regularly

For all games, shin-guards, elbow pads, mouth guards must be worn, face guards for those players under 18 years of age.

In the Public's Eye

Please remember to use good judgment when in public and wearing CEIHF attire. Remember, as a member of the CEIHF organization you represent not only yourself but your team, club and the badge. You are accountable for what you say and do in public.

It is a policy of the CEIHF for all team members to adhere to the organization's dress code. The team dress code will consist of ironed dress shirt, tie, dress pants, and dress shoes, or mock neck shirts.

Travel

You will travel per team/club established guidelines for that trip

If you are experiencing travel delays immediately notify the Head Coach and/or your Team Administrator

You will follow the rules or other instructions of any person acting in the capacity of a "chaperone"

You will be neat and presentable at all times. This includes prescribed dress for the trip

You are responsible for all travel documentation — identification, license, passport, etc.

You should make arrangements to have sufficient spending money to take care of personal needs while travelling

Hotels

For the protection of the Club, Coaches and Players, absolutely NO individual player meetings are to be held in any private hotel rooms.

You are a guest of the hotel or organization providing accommodation. You must do everything possible to maintain a cooperative relationship. It is vital that you behave in a manner consistent with being a CEIHF player

Colorado Elite Inline Hockey Federation – Rocky Mountain Talons 2009–2010 Code of Conduct and Dress Code

You are to keep your room in a neat and presentable manner at all times. Any broken, missing or stolen items from your room are the responsibility of the player(s)

You are responsible for any incidental charges including but not limited to meals, telephone, movies, etc.

Absolutely no guests are permitted in rooms unless permission is granted by the Head Coach

Violations

Players failing to follow the club's Code of Conduct will be sanctioned accordingly by the Head Coach, AIHL and/or the President of CEIHF Operations. Violations could result in suspension or dismissal from the program.

Consequences for violation(s) of the guidelines set forth in this Handbook include but are not limited to:

Verbal warning from Head Coach

Reduced playing time, removal from tournament roster for a determined period of time

Suspension of playing privileges for a determined amount of time

Dismissal from team and/or club

Additionally,

All serious violations of the Handbook guidelines resulting in more than a verbal warning will be reviewed by the President of CEIHF Operations. Further, a meeting will be held with violating player and parent(s) and/or guardian(s) prior to any disciplinary action being taken

Incident Reports will be reviewed by the AIHL and/or President of CEIHF Operations. All suspensions served are the responsibility of the player. Continued Incident Report offenses will be considered a serious violation of this CEIHF Handbook and the Player Agreement and its guidelines and as such will be subject to review by President of CEIHF Operations and AIHL to determine disciplinary action.

Player Agreement

I, together with my parent(s) and/or guardian(s), have read the CEIHF Player Code of Conduct. I accept and agree to abide by all guidelines set forth within.

Player Name

Player Signature

Parent or Guardian Name

Parent Signature

Date

Colorado Elite Inline Hockey Federation – Rocky Mountain Talons 2009–2010 Code of Conduct and Dress Code

TRADITION, HONOR, PASSION, EXCELLENCE

Congratulations on being selected to play at the CEIHF's Rocky Mountain Talons. As a member of a highly respected hockey organization, it should be considered an honor to represent the badge of the Rocky Mountain Talons. As such, the expectations for our players are high; the responsibility of wearing the Talons uniform with pride is foremost each time we step on the hockey rink.

TRADITION, HONOR, PASSION AND EXCELLENCE are the virtues most professional teams live by. We, as Rocky Mountain Talons, HONOR the game; all that have gone before us and those that will follow. We play with PASSION — there is no other option. And, while we follow in the TRADITION that Talons teams have set, we strive to build a new tradition of excellence both on and off the field.

This Player Code of Conduct discusses some of the requirements and policies related to wearing the uniform of a Rocky Mountain Talons. Please read the Player Code of Conduct. Having signed the Player Agreement, you agree to follow these guidelines. Make sure your Head Coach has a copy of your signed Player Agreement. Unsigned Player Agreements mean the player will not be permitted to participate.

It is with a great sense of excitement that we welcome you to the Rocky Mountain Talons organization. There has never been a greater time to be a part of our hockey program. Unparalleled opportunities await the players who strive to excel.

We look forward to seeing you on the rink,

Eddie Delgado
President, Colorado Elite Inline Hockey Federation

Kevin Birka
Vice President, Colorado Elite Inline Hockey Federation

James Drapal
Head Coach and Coaching Administrator

Michael Magera
Head Coach, Junior Talons Program
CEIHF Advisory Board Member